Livestock Truck Accident Response Training

*Saturday, September 16, 2017 from 9:30-4:30
Broadwater County Fairgrounds*

This hands-on workshop will help first responders, ranchers and truckers be prepared in the event of a livestock truck accident. The event includes a full scale exercise involving trucks, cattle and equipment. Dr. Jeanne Rankin, MSU Extension Agro-Emergency Coordinator, will be training participants how to humanely and safely deal with cattle at the scene of accident. Lunch is provided.

The exercise is sponsored by MSU Extension,
Broadwater County Farm Bureau,
Broadwater County Disaster Emergency
Services and the Broadwater County Rural Fire Department.

There is no fee, but pre-registration is requested to help plan lunch. Please RSVP to the Broadwater County Extension Office by September 11th to 266-9242 or broadwater@montana.edu to guarantee your lunch.

If you need any special accommodations or have questions about the physical access, please contact the MSU Extension Office in Broadwater County at 406-266-9242 in advance of your participation or visit.

Montana State University Extension is an ADA/EO/AA/Veteran's Preference Employer and Provider of educational outreach.
