RULES

Reasons for making rules

- get things accomplished
- establish boundaries, limits
- establish common expectations
- set policy
- establish fairness/limit arbitrariness

When deciding to develop rules...

- Ask: “How does this rule contribute to the education of the youth you’re working with?”
- Ask: “What’s the intent of this rule?”
- Ask: “Do we really need another rule to solve this problem?”
- Ask: “Will we allow any exceptions to this rule?”
- Ask: “How well have we defined the consequences for violating this rule?”
- Ask: “Who will enforce these rules?”
- Ask: “What is our grievance procedure for appealing the provisions of this rule?”
- Ask: “How will we adequately inform others about this rule’s existence and implications?”
- Ask: “When will we review the rule to see if it still makes sense?”
