

MONTANA
STATE UNIVERSITY

EXTENSION

Unlimited Aging: Grandparents Raising Grandchildren

In Montana there are more than 6,600 grandparents raising grandchildren. Most grandparents become involved due to a family crisis. Come learn about the Montana Grandparents Raising Grandchildren (GRG), which is designed to provide support and information to Montana Grandparents who are primary caregivers for their relative children.

October 6, 2017 - Friday

Time: 7-8 PM

Location: St. Stephens Episcopal Church
Stevensville, MT

St. Stephens Episcopal Church presents:

Katelyn Andersen
MSU/Ravalli County Extension Agent

Learn more about resources and information in the Grandparents Raising Grandchildren program:

- Support in Ravalli County
- Understanding medical and financial support for grandparents
- Respite and child care resources

For more information, contact Katelyn Andersen at

MSU Extension-Ravalli County: 375-6611 or katelyna@montana.edu

To request a disability accommodation or to inform us of special needs, please contact MSU Extension at the number above. The programs of the MSU Extension Service are available to all people regardless of race, creed, color, sex, disability or national origin.

EXTENSION

Ravalli County

Explore YOUR MSU Resource