

4-H Livestock Code of Ethics

Believing it is in the best interest of all breeders of all livestock to maintain a reputation of integrity and to continue to present a wholesome and progressive image in the show ring, the 4-H Livestock Committee lists herewith those practices which are considered unacceptable in presenting livestock in the show ring. The use of such practices and procedures is, therefore, considered unethical in the showing of 4-H livestock at the fair.

A complete copy of the Code of Ethics is available at the Extension Office.

1. Criticizing or interfering with the judge, other exhibitors or show officials while attending the Fair may result in an individual or group being expelled, placed on probation or declared ineligible to exhibit at the Fair.
2. Any violation of the rules and regulations incorporated in this Premium Book, 4-H Livestock Code of Ethics may result in forfeiture of all premiums and awards, disqualification, expulsion of all premiums and awards, disqualification, expulsion or probation of the exhibitor or organized group the exhibitor represents and the exhibit or livestock involved. Probation, disqualification, expulsion or other disciplinary action of the 4-H Livestock Committee will be final. Such action will require application for readmission under such terms as the committee may prescribe before the group or individual is allowed to exhibit at future events. It is up the 4-H club leaders to talk to their 4-H membership about ethics.
